

In Memorium

Tom Andersen

Tom Andersen, M.D., Board Member, colleague and friend has died. Tom fell on the rocks by the sea in Norway, while walking his dog, and died from his injuries. There will be a civil funeral service for Tom Friday May 25, at 12.30 p.m. in Nye Krematorium, Vestre Gravlund in Oslo. Ole Danbolt Mjøs will give the main funeral speech. Magnus Hald and Georg Høyer will also coordinate and contribute. Music will be conducted by the daughters of Sissel Reichelt. The funeral agency in charge is Jølstad begravelsesbyrå v/ Hans Morten Brun, tlf. +47 22 79 77 00.

On behalf of IFTA I send Tom's widow Anne and other family members our deepest sympathies. We will remember Tom with great respect and fondness and celebrate his life. We are thankful for his contribution to our field and to IFTA.

From here on in these mountains. This sun, this sky will be your Requiem Scratched on the surface of the world which you loved And the consciousness of those that loved you. (Sveinbjörn I. Baldvinsson.)

Toby Sigrún Herman, President of IFTA
